

CONTEST GUIDELINES

“Be a lamp, a light or a LADDER!”

Ready, set, create! Habitat for Humanity of Clallam County (Habitat) will auction off artistically designed ladders created by community members of all ages... proceeds will support Habitat for Humanity of Clallam County programs!

Who:

- Habitat is commissioning artists/crafters in Clallam County

Benefits to Artists:

- Artists may provide their own wooden ladder or a FREE wooden ladder can be picked up (on a first come, first serve basis as supplies are limited) at the Port Angeles Habitat Store ONLY with submission of COMPLETED application, bio & signed guidelines. (Found on-line at www.habitatclallam.org )
- A catalog of all submitted wooden ladders, along with the artist(s) bio will be produced and used for marketing of the Art Auction, in addition to media coverage.
- People’s Choice Award – for Sequim and Port Angeles each
Depending on entries, awards may be divided into categories, i.e.; Individual (under 18yo), Individual (over 18yo), Group, etc.
- Wooden ladders will be displayed periodically in the artist’s community (Sequim, Port Angeles only) for public viewing, along with the artist(s) bio.
- Habitat will host an Artists Reception (Date, time and location TBD), followed by an auction of the wooden ladders. This reception/auction will be open to the public. Artists are encouraged to attend as People’s Choice winners will be announced.

How:

- Wooden ladder needs to stay intact (all mediums accepted)
- Does not need to function as a wooden ladder once completed
- All artwork/design must be original
- Paint and other art supplies will be the artist/art class responsibility.
- All wooden ladders must be completed by May 31, 2020 and delivered to the Habitat Store in Port Angeles ONLY for submission in all community art showings and to be photographed for the Art Auction catalog.
- Once submitted, the wooden ladder becomes the property of Habitat, photographs of the wooden ladder may be used for marketing only by HFHCC, and however, reproduction rights of the wooden ladder to sell solely belong to the Artist.
- Contest will conclude at the Habitat Wooden Ladder Art reception/auction, to be held Friday August 14, 2020 on the outside patio (weather permitting) of The Cedars at Dungeness Golf Course Double Eagle Restaurant, where wooden ladders will be auctioned off to the highest bidder.

Artist Bio

“Be a lamp, a light or a LADDER!”

Tell us all about YOU! We like to know who our artists are and what inspires you.

Answer all the questions, in 3-4 sentences, below to be included in the Art Auction Catalog. We would also like to include a picture of you or your group. Please email those to michelle@habitatclallam.org as soon as possible.

Thank you!

Who are you? Tell us a bit about you...how long have you lived here? What do you do (school, job, interests)? If you are creating a ladder as a group, please list only names and occupations or grade (if applicable).

Why art? Let us know how you got started. What got you interested in art? If you are a group, how long have you worked together?

What is your inspiration? What inspires you to create your art?

How can we find you? Do you have any social media channels showcasing your art? Let us know so that we can include it in the catalog!
